EXPECT REDS TO HAMSTRING HUNGARY PROBE

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, June 12 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities here predicted today that Russia will either reject outright or try to hamstring the American demand for a Big Three inquiry into the Communist grab in Hungary.

In either event, these officials declared, the United States in all probability will carry the case to the United Nations—perhaps in some manner designed to focus the spotlight on Soviet activities all through the Balkans.

This country laid the foundation for such an appeal last night when it made public a blistering protest charging Moscow with "flagrant interference" in Hungarian affairs and demanding a three-power investigation of political conditions in Hungary "as a matter of urgency."

Rejected Two Protests
The note was sent to Brig. Gen. George H. Weems, American member of the Allied Control Commission in Budapest, for delivery to Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, ranking Soviet member and acting chairman of the commission.

The document brought out the fact that on two previous occasions, March 5 and March 17, substantially the same request had been turned down by Sviridov. Hence authorities here said they see no reason to believe that it would get a different reception by the Russians this time.

The note itself said simply that unless there were an "adequate investigation" by an Anglo-American-Russian commission, the United States—as a signer of the Yalta declaration and the armistice with Hungary and as a member of the United Nations—would consider "further action."

Yanks Determined
Because this virtually put Russia on notice of an impending appeal to the U.N. some officials said the Soviets might agree formally to a three-power inquiry but then try to put roadblocks in the commission's path.

This government is in no mood for any such stalling tactics, they added.

The speculation that the case—if it is carried to the U.N.—would not be confined to Hungary alone gained weight when the State department lashed out at recent developments in Soviet-dominated Bulgaria just before it made public the Hungarian protest note.

ALL KINDS OF WEATHER TODAY

(By The Associated Press)
The nation had a diversified weather diet today, ranging from snow in the Rockies and rain in the flooded Midwest to unseasonable heat in the east.

The latest spring snow in the 75 year history of the Denver, Colo., weather bureau was reported there. Lander, Wyo., had six inches of snow and Cheyenne, Wyo., five with temperatures dropping to around 30 degrees. Mountain highways, however, were reported open to traffic.

The U. S. S. Weather Bureau in Chicago forecast continuing fairly heavy rain for much of the Midwest, which will add a new burden to the already flooded rivers. Showers which fell in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri last night and this morning were expected to end late today with the rain belt moving into Illinois and Indiana.

Temperatures were below normal for the season over much of the Midwest but the weather bureau predicted they would rise slowly today.

In the east the mercury was somewhat above normal, the weather bureau said, after record breaking heat yesterday in some eastern points. Richmond, Va., had a high of 97 degrees yesterday and New York 95.

The deep south also reported warm and humid weather but the southwest coast region experienced rain with fairly low temperatures.

'SCHOOL OF THE AIR' PROVIDED IN HOUSE BILL

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—The Senate received today a House-passed bill paying the way for the establishment of a statewide "school of the air" radio network.

Voted unanimously by the House last night, the measure would create a division of radio and audio-visual education in the Department of Public Instruction to administer the proposed program.

The House left only $25,000 of an original $800,000 appropriation to lay preliminary plans for creation of the frequency modulation network, precluding the possibility of setting up the "school of the air" before another two years.

Rep. Robert D. Fleming (R-Allegheny), sponsor of the legislation, said he hoped the 1949 legislature will restore the appropriation to carry out actual operation of the program.

Other Measures

The lower branch last night also passed bills which would:
Appropriate $5,426,990 for Pennsylvania's 14 state teachers' colleges and $815,000 for the Pennsylvania Soldiers' Orphans school at Erie.

Reduce from $2,450,000 to $450,000 the appropriation for construction of new state armories and improvements at the Indiantown Gap Military reservation.

Exempt corporations owning coal mines, distilleries, laundries and meat processing plants from the five-mill capital stock tax.

Increase the compensation of election poll watchers from $5 to $10.

MAY'S DEFENSE TO CALL MEAD

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Justice Henry A. Schweinhaut granted today permission to the defense to call former Senator James M. Mead (D-NY) as a witness in the May-Garrison war fraud trial.

Defense counsel contends that Mead "withheld" evidence from the Justice Department which would be "beneficial to the defendants" in the case.

Mead is a former chairman of the Senate War Investigating Committee which probed wartime connections of former Congressman Andrew J. May and munitions makers Henry and Murray Garsson.

May, wartime head of the House Military Committee, and the Garsson brothers are on trial on bribe and conspiracy charges. May is accused of taking $55,000 from the Garssons for official favors.

Schweinhaut ruled that questioning of Mead would be limited.

Charles J. Margiotti, chief defense attorney, had asked permission to question Mead's "motives" in conducting the senate investigation of the Garsson operations last summer. Margiotti said the inquiry was prompted by Mead's "political motives," when Mead was campaigning for the New York governorship.

The court ruled, however, that Mead could not be questioned about any motives he may have had in conducting the investigation.

Still Far Apart On Atomic Control Views

Lake Success, June 12 (AP)—Russia and the western powers were still poles apart today in their views on atomic control, but some United Nations delegates expressed belief that Soviet proposals submitted yesterday at least offered the basis for a new approach to the problem.

While there were no signs that the 12-month deadline in the U. N. atomic energy commission was any nearer the breaking point, the delegates had before them for the first time a detailed Soviet plan for atomic control.

The plan, unfolded by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, went to the commission's working committee today for consideration and discussion.

It left the fundamental differences between Russia and the majority of the commission unchanged, but the Soviet views were more clearly defined than at any time previous and some delegates expressed hope that perhaps these differences might be reconciled.

Bulgarian Assembly Ousts Anti-Reds

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 12 (AP)—The Bulgarian Grand National assembly last night expelled its 23 Agrarian party members, who formed the chief opposition to the Communist-dominated fatherland front bloc.

The assembly voted that the 23 had resigned voluntarily, but all 23, in a final statement to Parliament, contended that "we do not resign."

Nikola Petkov, now under arrest on charges of plotting against the state, is the party's general secretary. The assembly adopted a resolution saying that the Agrarians, "owing to voluntary resignation, have lost prestige and are no longer members of the Grand National assembly."

The assembly voted that the 23 members would be succeeded by an equal number of opposition representatives whose names had appeared in the election lists of October, 1946.

Jones, secretary treasurer of the National Federation of Salaried Employees, announced today that wage agreements had been reached covering approximately 2,000 "white collar" workers of the Aluminum Company of America, the American Bridge company and the Pressed Steel Car company.

The ALCOA agreement provides graduated increases ranging from $17.50 to $35 per month for workers who have passed the probationary period, with a minimum raise of $20 monthly for employees with one or more years' service. More than 1,200 benefit.

Workers get raises ranging from $22 to $25 monthly in the Pressed Steel Car agreement. Terms of the American Bridge settlement were not announced by agreement of both the independent union and the firm. More than 300 workers are affected in each instance.

The ALCOA settlement also provides life insurance and health and welfare plans, cost of which will be borne by the company, plus an improved vacation schedule, Jones said.

Austrian Minister Freed On Treason

Vienna, June 12 (AP)—A Vienna People's court today acquitted Dr. Guido Schmidt, the Austrian Foreign Minister before Anschluss, of high treason charges.

The five-man court ruled that charges accusing Schmidt of betraying Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg and engineering the 1938 Austrian link with Germany to advance his own interests had not been proven.

"It is not the place of this court to determine the rightness or wrongness of your pre-Anschluss foreign policy," the court said. "Our task here is to determine the guilt or innocence of this one man."

RED SOX TAKE 3RD STRAIGHT; CUBS COP PAIR

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

Things were looking up for genial Joe Cronin and his Boston Red Sox today.

Back in undisputed possession of third place, and in the midst of their longest winning streak in a month, the American league champions are beginning to look like the club that swept through the circuit like a prairie fire last season.

The old slugging bunch of Ted Williams, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Dom DiMaggio and John Pesky, still is in the throes of a puzzling batting slump, but the pitching department appears to have taken a new lease on life.

The biggest lift, however, has been the return of lefthander Mickey Harris, and not because he is the court jester of the club either. The 29-year-old southpaw, one of last year's big four, hadn't seen an inning of service on the mound until yesterday.

First Appearance

Making his first appearance of the '47 season, the native New York southpaw pitched seven scoreless innings as the Red Sox won their third straight over the Cleveland Indians 3-0. Not since May 14 have the Red Sox won that many in a row.

The victory put the Sox only 2½ games in back of the league-leading Detroit Tigers who divided a double-header with the Philadelphia Athletics. The Bengals easily won the first game 7-1 behind the seven-hit pitching of big Al Benton, but were shut out 4-0 in the nightcap by Carl Scheib, a 20-year-old unheralded rookie who was making his first major league start.

The split, however, dropped the A's into fourth place.

Another rookie hurler, Frank Shea of the New York Yankees, had his seven-game winning streak broken when Don Kolloway tripled and George Dickey singled in the 11th inning to give Joe Haynes and the Chicago White Sox a 3-2 win in Chicago. The victory moved the White Sox into fifth place, six percentage points ahead of the Indians. The second-place Yankee, in losing dropped to a full game behind the Tigers.

The Chicago Cubs further tightened the blistering National league pennant race turning back the Boston Braves twice in Boston 4-0 and 5-2 to replace the Braves in third place and move within a game and a half of the front-running New York Giants. The Giants dropped an 8-7 slugfest to the Pittsburgh Pirates in New York.

Reds Nip Dodgers

Ray Mueller's pinch hit double with the bases loaded in the sixth inning drove in three mates and gave the Cincinnati Reds a 5-4 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets' Field. Jackie Robinson of the Dodgers enjoyed a perfect day with a triple, double and two singles.

The Philadelphia Phillies shoved the St. Louis Cardinals back into a last-place tie with Pittsburgh by nosing out the Redbirds 5-4 in Philadelphia. The Phils jumped on Howie Pollet for all their runs in the first inning after Joe Medwick had given the Cards a three-run lead with a home run in the top half off Ken Raffensberger.

Washington dumped the St. Louis Browns back into the American league cellar with a 4-2 victory in St. Louis last night behind the six-hit pitching of Early Wynn. The triumph moved the Nats into seventh place, a half game ahead of the Browns.

Naylor and Warrenfeltz formed the winning battery while Slaybaugh pitched for Heidlersburg.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 12 (AP)—Hold your hats: Luke Johnsson, who should know a little about the subject, figures the Chicago Bears will have a team next fall that will be better than their 1946 championship squad. . . . He claims the other clubs likewise will be better, but maybe that's just caution. . . . Besides the old standbys, the Bears are looking for plenty of help from such guys as Bob Fenimore of Oklahoma A. and M., Eddie Allen of Penn. Bill Miller and Ernie Knotts, Duke Line-men and Reid Moseley of Georgia, says Luke. . . . By the way, wonder if it was a typographical mistake when he mentioned the Los Angeles "Rums"? . . . The pro golfers are grinding their teeth as well as those illegal clubs over the U. S. open championship. . . . Reports from St. Louis say the boys are peeved over high caddy fees (though a winner never minds tossing his club totter $50) and because players' wives have to pay admission.

MORE KID STUFF

In a class "A" sectional high school tournament at Rochester, N. Y., the other night, Jack Stivers of Corning north side and Wilson Graham of Genesee both pitched seven-inning no hit games. Corning won, 1-0, when Graham walked the first two batters, put another on first by an error and then fired a wild pitch to let the only run of the game score. . . . Stivers, incidentally, has been observed by several big league scouts but he's supposed to be headed to Valparaiso University to study for the ministry.

BARGAIN RATES

So many college coaches are signing up for the Boston Garden basketball clinic that Bill Mokray figures they're just scouting Doggie Julian, Adolph and other "faculty" members. . . . Asks Bill: "Wouldn't you pay $15 to get a few notes on beating a big rival?"

Binghamton slammed four homers and outlasted the Pioneers for its two-run margin. Ronald Hoyle, making his debut with the Triplets in a relief role, was credited with the win.

SCHEIB BLANKS TIGERS IN 1ST MOUND EFFORT

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP)—Twenty-

-year-old Carl Scheib pitched batting practice for the Philadelphia Athletics at fifteen and signed a contract with Connie Mack two years later but it wasn't until today that the tall, loose-jointed kid really had become of major league age.

It was easy to understand too. For the youngster from Gratz, Pa., was enroute home after making his first start in organized baseball yesterday—a winning one—a seven-hit shut-out over the league-leading Detroit Tigers.

He won the first one the hard way. The Tigers had runners on base in almost every inning as a result of seven walks, a trio of doubles and a three-bagger. But Scheib was equal to every occasion, turning back the hard-hitting Detroiters when the chips were down.

He had heart and it pulled him through to the dream of every kid pitcher striving to make good in the big leagues—that first starting victory.

Young Scheib who joined the Athletics as a 17-year-old high school boy and has never seen the light gate of the minors, is considered by Connie Mack as a definite factor in the surprising surge of the A's into the first division.

Star Relief Twirler

His main job up to yesterday's starting assignment was relief chores. Scheib has been first assistant to Mack's chief fireman, lanky Russ Christopher.

And he has turned in top-flight performances.

On his last swing through the west, Scheib pitched against Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit, allowing a total of 11 hits and one run in 23 1/3 innings. He had a string of 14 1/3 scoreless innings before Cleveland nipped him for a tally.

Connie Mack said at the start of the season that his pitching staff was one of the best if not the tops in the American league. He pointed to such fellows as Phil Marchildon, Dick Fowler, Jesse Flores and Russ Christopher with pride.

About Scheib! "Oh, he'll come along," remarked the canny old baseball campaigner. That should have been the tipoff that the "old man" had another pitching star in the making.

LOCKE FAVORED IN USGA MEET

By JERRY LISKA

St. Louis, June 12 (AP)—They tee off today in goldfom's most grandiose show, the 47th United States Golf association open with South African Bobby Locke slightly favored to mow down 165 tense rivals on the short but deceptive St. Louis Country Club course.

Mustache, 150-pound Lloyd Mangrum was defending his title in this 72-hole Blue Ribbon scramble, but the fellow to beat obviously was the red-hot importation from Johannesburg, South Africa, Arthur D'Arcy (Bobby) Locke.

Cloudy weather with occasional thundershowers was predicted as the phalanx of golf's big and little shots swarmed over the snug, narrow par-71 course which has plenty of trouble lurking in a 6,532-yard meander.

Locke, 29, winner of $8,437 and four titles in seven U. S. meets within two months, was the favorite although Mangrum, leading P.G.A. money winner, Jimmy Demaret and Ben Hogan also got respectable nods from the bet makers.

The quest for a slice of a $10,000 purse (for professionals) and the tradition-steeped championship calls for 18 holes today and tomorrow, when the field will be trimmed to 60, and a 36-hole windup Saturday.

Baltimore Colts Train At Hershey

Baltimore, June 12 (AP)—The Hershey Park Golf club at Hershey, Pa., will serve as a training center for the Baltimore Colts of the All-America football conference, President Bob Rodenberg announced today.

Drills will open July 25 and will continue for a month, with the pro-outfit going to Akron, O., on August 29 for an exhibition game with the Cleveland Browns.

Coach Cecil Isbell is looking for 65 players to report to the Hershey grounds, which will be taken over by the University of Pennsylvania when the Colts break training camp.

The American mushroom crop, non-existent at the turn of the century, totaled 48,000,000 pounds last year.

Jack Tangle, entered in the seventh race of a program at Atlantic City, held up proceedings for some time by getting tangled in the starting gate. Assistant starters finally got him back on his feet and Jocky Ken Seaworth, who escaped injury, finished the race—not, however, in the money.—(AP Wirephoto)

There was no fire. It was only the heat—heat from the display window's light bulbs which had set off the store's sprinkling system and turned in a fire alarm.

TED WILLIAMS TOPS ALL-STARS

Chicago, June 12 (AP)—Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox left fielder, topped all vote getters of both major leagues in the all-star baseball poll today with 13,082 as balloting continued for starting lineups for the 14th annual game July 8 at Chicago's Wrigley Field.

As the balloting, by fans throughout the nation headed into the end of the first week, Bobby Doerr, Red Sox second baseman, took over first place from Joe Gordon, of Cleveland.

Doerr, who played on American league all-star teams in 1941, 1943, 1944, and 1946, polled 9,476 votes to Gordon's 9,083. Billy Johnson of the New York Yankees, became another new leader today, topping Detroit's George Kell 8,292 to 8,054 in the race for the American league third base job.

Red Schoendienst, of the St. Louis Cardinals, passed Eddie Stanky of the Brooklyn Dodgers to go in second place behind Emil Verban of Philadelphia, in the National league's second base contest.

The Chicago Tribune, serving as headquarters for the balloting, which ends June 26, said returns were expected soon from fans voting in Canada, Hawaii, Panama and the overseas edition of the army's Stars and Stripes.

KEEP DISCOVERING

There is no more fascinating study than that of discovery. The early-history of a country is the most absorbing. A child's life should be its happiest period for it is one of constant discovery. Each new discovery a thrill.

We have continual progress in the world for men and women give their lives to this business of discovery. The scientist, the researcher, the explorer, and the experimenter, all are benefactors. Material rewards mean little to such for they are constantly being repaid through the satisfaction of each new discovery.

The collector's greatest joy lies in the discovery of his long search for the thing that he has in mind. His happiness is gained in the very discovery. Then he goes on to something else.

The naturalist counts no cost too great in order to discover some new phase of his objective. For hours and days he will seek out the habits of a bird or animal. He will take note of every creation in nature and make note of it. New revelations spring to his notice on every hand. There are no limits to his perseverance. W. H. Hudson, commenting upon the return of the Chiffchaff, allows his mind to speculate upon the greatest of all problems—life and death.

Watching those small red squirrels, at my summer island retreat in Nova Scotia, I learned more than to look upon them as just squirrels. I saw them with habits, creatures of resourcefulness, jealous, and with interesting instincts. I scented many a human trait in them. I discovered many things about them that I have never read or heard about. For example, one day, I noted with my field glasses that one of them was cleaning the pine pitch from his face, by wiping it with dry leaves! He might have been a "she," however—beauty particular!

There isn't a day that dawns that cannot be a discovery day. I am constantly discovering new facts and interesting items in the thousands of books in my library. But the best of all discoveries is to discover something good in people—and in ourselves.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Always Go On."

HERMIT

A hermit slips away from care.
To live a lonely life he chooses.
No one his dinner to prepare,
No one to find the things he loses.
No one to tell him yes and no
Or bid him stay when he would go.

The hermit hides from all his kin.
He wants no birthdays to remember.
His shack no friends come trooping in
From January to December.

He has no one to make his bed
Or bake a cake or cut his bread.
A hermit runs away from all
That frets the man at useful labors.

He has no love for children small,
No wish to know or help his neighbors.
And since he has no one to care,
He seldom thinks to comb his hair.

Though difficult this life appears
And harsh, as cynics often term it,
I'd rather face its hopes and fears
And all its hurts than be a hermit.

I'd rather heavy burdens bear
Than run away and hide from care.
Morning, and $2,000 to the Prince of Peace Memorial Episcopal church here are the two largest public gifts in the joint will of the late John M. Warner, who died in March, 1922, and Mrs. Warner. Funeral services were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Prince of Peace church.

Three Are Added to Faculty: The board of trustees at Gettysburg college held its annual commencement meeting Tuesday morning.

Dr. W. E. Tilberg, of the University of Wisconsin graduate school, was ratified by the board as dean of men, succeeding the late Jerome C. Jackson.

The board also ratified the appointment of Dr. Elliott Cheney as head of the department of physics, succeeding Dr. Preston H. Edwards. The board also approved the selection of Clayton E. Bilheimer, of York, as director of physical education. This is a newly created position.

Personal Mention: Miss Betty Jane Snyder and Samuel Snyder, celebrating their eighth and fourth birthdays respectively, entertained 65 friends at a party at the Snyder home, Stevens street, Friday evening.

Paul L. Roy, of Kennilworth Inn, Ashville, N. C., left on Friday for Schuylake, N. Y., where he will spend two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Gule W. Lefever, North Stratton street, are spending a week in Erie.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, Mrs. Wilbur and Hon. and Mrs. Joseph Himes, of Washington, D. C., motored here Tuesday evening and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Keith, Carlisle street.

RUSSIANS KILL SWEDISH RELIEF UNIT'S DRIVER

Vienna, June 12 (AP)—A high Austrian government official reported today that Russian troops had fired on a Swedish Relief Agency party last night, killing an automobile driver and wounding Torsten Arnau, chief of the Swedish mission to Austria.

No comment was immediately available from either Swedish or Russian sources.

The Austrian informant said the dead man was named Carlsen and added that he might have been Arnau's deputy as well as his driver, but of this he was uncertain.

Also in the car, the Austrian said, were Arnau's wife and their child.

May Have Been Guards
The shooting was reported to have taken place at Berg, about 35 miles east of Vienna near the Czechoslovakian border.

A large Russian ammunition dump reportedly is located near Berg, and the Austrian informant said the Russians who did the shooting apparently were guards stationed at the dump.

Arnau and his family were reported to have been taken into custody but later released. The informant said Carlsen's body was kept by the Russians.

Unofficial sources said the Swedish consulate had protested vigorously to the Russian ambassador and that a party from the consulate left early this morning for Berg to conduct an investigation.

Report Cards Sold To Hannegan Syndicate

Columbus, O., June 12 (AP)—Is Sam Breadon actually about to peddle his world champion St. Louis Cardinals to a syndicate headed by Postmaster-General Robert Hannegan?

The Columbus Dispatch stated flatly yesterday that a deal between the "Hannegan syndicate" and Breadon had progressed to its "final stages."

Hannegan shunned sports writers at St. Louis where he appeared after leaving Washington without disclosing his destination, and Breadon declined comment, a usual policy with him when deals are cooking.

Hannegan's Washington office said that he had denied the story when the question was put to him by telephone. The Dispatch published its story under a St. Louis dateline and attributed it to an unquestionably reliable and confidential source. It named Edwin S. Pauley, Los Angeles millionaire, as one of Hannegan's associates in a "deal that has been completed under closely-guarded secrecy."

TRUMAN TURNS TOURIST; WILL RETURN FRIDAY

Ottawa, Ont., June 12 (AP)—President Truman wound up his trip to Canada with a holiday from official business today before starting back to Washington tonight for vital decisions on labor and tax cut legislation.

Turning tourist for a day, the U. S. Chief Executive took his official staff for an outing and a view of the Canadian countryside around Ottawa.

The whole party planned to attend a luncheon at the exclusive Seignory club, 45 miles away.

The holiday followed a busy day yesterday in which he brought a cheering parliament to its feet by declaring that the United States intends to help those nations that want to live in peace with their neighbors, without coercion or intimidation.

"Cordial Reception"
He went from this ovation to a luncheon at which he toasted parliament and reminded its members he had "never in my life had a more cordial reception."

The state visit ends tonight when he boards his 11-car special train at 11:05 o'clock (Eastern Daylight time) for the trip back to Washington via Toronto, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

The United States Chief Executive will view the famous falls from his private car when his train halts for 10 minutes at 9:05 a. m. (EDT) Friday for an operational stop. He is due in Washington at 9:15 p. m. (EDT) that night.

He will return to face a vital decision on whether to permit a four billion dollar tax cut voted by a Republican-controlled Congress as well as action on legislation imposing new curbs on labor unions.

The deadline for vetoing the tax cut is Monday. Mr. Truman has said

DEWEY JUNKET LOOKED UPON AS POLITICAL

By JACK BELL

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's scheduled invasion of the west stirred fresh speculation in Washington today of a possible stop-Dewey drive among other prospective candidates for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination.

The New York Governor's July junket to scenic points beyond the Mississippi is frankly regarded among Republican politicians here as more of a vote-seeking trip than the sight-seeing tour it has been labeled in Albany dispatches.

While Dewey has said he is taking his family along and making no speeches, friends of the 1944 nominee haven't tried to deny that he plans to meet about as many local Republican leaders as want to see him.

To Meet Governors

He will make a stop in Salt Lake City for the annual governor's conference, which some times has repeatedly that the time is not ripe for reducing taxes.

I CAN KEEP DOING THIS ALL DAY LONG IF I KNOW THAT THEY WILL GIVE ME SOME.

Stauffer's SALTINES

BUY THEM AT YOUR GROCER

vided a sounding board for Dewey in the past.

All of which has started talk among friends of some other Republican who would like to be President about ganging up against the New Yorker in the party's Philadelphia convention a little more than a year away.

But one GOP Senator who is certain to carry his state's favorite son endorsement into that convention, said he thinks the stop-Dewey urge among other possible candidates will never fall into even an underground agreement among them.

"Favorite Sons"

Instead, this Senator said he expects that opponents will put their faith in favorite sons and the strength of more widely supported candidates, each hoping for a stalemate that will give him a chance.

As an indication of the trend, an influential and active supporter of former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota told this reporter he hopes the delegate strength of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio measures up to expectations in certain sections of the country, particularly the south.

The obvious inference is that what is Taft's will not be Dewey's.

Similarly, some Taft supporters say they would like to see Stassen—or anybody else, for that matter—block Dewey out in states where they think the Ohio senator has little support at the present time.

CONGRESSMEN CRY OUT AGAIN ON LOBBYISTS

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Maybe you're a lobbyist but don't know it. You're one if you try to influence your congressman, by word or letter, to vote for or against something. That's your right. Plenty other private citizens do it all the time. That's how congressmen are supposed to know what the people are thinking.

But about once a year there's a cry of pain in the capitol against the professional lobbyist, either out-in-the-open or not-so-out-in-the-open.

Last year Rep. Sabath, Illinois Democrat, raged against them. Now Senator Cain, Washington Republican, complains.

A lobby may be an individual or a group wanting congressmen to do something. Lobbies have swarmed through the capitol for years.

Passed A Law

To get some of them on the record as Lobbyists, Congress last year passed a law which said:

A person whose main purpose is lobbying, must register. About 750 have registered as professional lobbyists.

But they're just the out-in-the-open kind. Being registered, they can walk into a congressman's office and say what their group is for.

But their kind of lobbying is pretty crude compared with the not-so-out-in-the-open lobbyists.

Some Are Smoother

These are the boys who:

1. Have a regular job somewhere else but come to Washington to do a little lobbying for one special bill, and then go home again.
2. Work here but are too smooth to hang around the capitol. They try to do their lobbying elsewhere. For example, by throwing a cocktail party for a few friends and a few congressmen, or maybe playing golf with a congressman.

Washington cocktail parties are endless. It's the cocktail-party-lobbying that irritates Senator Cain. (Rep. Fred Bradley, Michigan Republican, died a couple of weeks ago after complaining of the strain that work and cocktail parties put on congressmen.)

One congressman, not Cain, talked of the cocktail party lobbying, he said: "They're pretty slick. The host invites you through a mutual friend. He's here plugging for something. But you'll never hear it from him. He just wants to get friendly with you and get you to feel friendly toward him—and toward what you eventually find out he's plugging."

Cabinet Technique

This same congressman said he thinks more lobbying is done on the golf links around Washington than anywhere else. How? Pretty much the same quiet technique used at a cocktail party except that, on a golf course, there's a better chance for friendship, and plain talk.

One Congressman, talking about lobbying methods, said a member of President Truman's cabinet did a little in a quiet way. The congressman said: "This cabinet member came to see me and other members on a committee which was considering a bill he wanted passed. He just dropped in, said he had always wanted to know me, chatted 20 minutes, and never said what he had on his mind. If I didn't know the real reason for the visit, I would have felt overwhelmed by the honor."

FLOOD CONTROL FUNDS

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Rep. Leon Gavin (R-Pa.), has asked the House appropriations committee for $1,000,000 to continue flood control work in Pennsylvania's Jefferson and Elk counties. He asked an appropriations subcommittee for $500,000 each to continue work on the 6th and 7th units of the $2,000,000 Punxsutawney project and the $2,000,000 project at Johnstown, St. Mary's and Ridgeway during the 12 months beginning July 1.

Gets Death Penalty In Officer's Slaying

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP)—"I'm not afraid to die but I don't want my two-year-old boy to grow up knowing his old man died in the electric chair."

Those were the words with which 32-year-old Richard Hough accepted the death penalty imposed for his part in the slaying of Philadelphia Patrolman Cecil Ingling last January 30.

"I just hope," Hough added, "I live until they get those two guys and I can testify against them."

The "two guys" are ex-convicts James Smith and David Almeida, fugitives since they and Hough fled from a supermarket holdup. Ingling was fatally wounded attempting to halt their flight. Hough pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of first degree murder although he stated "I didn't kill Ingling and I am not vicious."

BLAME DEMAND FOR BOOST IN PRICE OF MEAT

Chicago, June 12 (P)—The bawling steer and the grunting hog jumped back again into the public spotlight today and there were innumerable charges and countercharges in explanation for the sudden boost in meat prices in livestock markets and in butcher shops.

Average price of steers yesterday rose to an all-time record high at approximately $25.00 a hundred pounds according to the department of agriculture. This topped the peak of $23.40 established last October immediately after OPA ceilings were removed. For the first time since March 5 the top reached $30.

Live hogs have not advanced as sharply as beef cattle, the top here yesterday being $24.75 a hundred pounds compared with $30.00 on February 25.

Cattle receipts at Kansas City yesterday, the largest for a June 11 in 25 years, advanced to the best price since January.

Top October Price

While the price for top grade cattle is lower, the department said steers of medium and low grades are higher than last October. A smaller percentage of strictly good and choice cattle are arriving and the price spread between various grades is narrowing.

Meanwhile, retail meat prices also advanced during the past several weeks and representatives of butchers in the east blamed the meat packers. In Newark, N. J., butchers threatened to close shop unless prices came down.

"The butchers are helpless and are getting so fed up they're ready to take a vacation," Joseph Vian, president of the Independent Retail Butchers' association of New Jersey, said.

Blame Demand

Large packers in Chicago, discounting talk of heavy foreign exports, said advancing meat prices represented an "amazing" domestic consumer demand, particularly for beef. This, they said, also was reflected in the high price for beef cattle at livestock markets.

The agriculture department said meat production last week totaled 317,000,000 pounds, 46 percent higher than a year ago.

"When the price of meat goes up, the consumer howls, but when the price of livestock goes down we get the howls from the producer," one packer said. "We operate between the devil and the deep blue sea."

Another packer spokesman said the normal hot weather slump in demand for meat had not developed this year.

ASK HEARING FOR DR. MILLER

Washington, June 12 (P)—A resolution urging that Dr. Clarence R. Miller, manager of the Coatesville, Pa., veterans hospital, be given a hearing before being transferred to a lesser position in Texas was adopted unanimously by the Pennsylvania Republican delegation.

The resolution, calling also for a "thorough" investigation of the proposed transfer, was ordered sent to Gen Omar N. Bradley, veterans administrator.

Rep. Dague (R-Pa.), in whose district Coatesville is situated, told a reporter the delegation's action was in response to numerous letters protesting Dr. Miller's transfer "and is an effort on behalf of the hospital's patients and the nation's taxpayers."

Dague, terming the transfer "irregular," said he feels the transfer is the result of "machinations" from within the veterans administration.

Dague said there would have been no criticism if Dr. Miller had been transferred to manage another hospital because such transfers are customary from time to time, but his transfer "to a desk job in Houston, Tex., can be considered only as a

Appropriation For State College Up

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—A $15,152,000 appropriation to the Pennsylvania State college was listed for House consideration today.

Already passed by the Senate and approved by the House Appropriations committee yesterday, the legislation provides for $9,152,000 for college maintenance and $6,000,000 for new building construction.

Also in a position for final passage tomorrow was a $600,000 grant to the college for agriculture and home economics instruction as the state's matching share of a similar appropriation by the Federal government.

Meanwhile, Gov. James H. Duff received for his signature a legislature-passed measure appropriating $95,000 to the college for a research program in the artificial breeding of cattle and livestock. The House-originated bill passed the Senate finally last night.

LICENSE FEE UP

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—An increase in resident fishing licenses from $1.50 to $2 is provided in a bill approved by both House and Senate but requiring House action on Senate amendments. demotion, even though he will receive the same pay."

Dr. Miller has been with the Veterans' Administration about 30 years and has been manager of the Coatesville hospital for seven years. His transfer was to be effective June 15. As the result of earlier action by Dague it has been postponed to June 29.

Jefferson, Pa., June 12 (P)—Lewis C. Jewell, 18, son of the Rev. Larry C. Jewell, Methodist minister of Khedive, fell from the bank into Ten Mile creek and drowned near here yesterday. Charles E. Hinaes, Greene county coroner, said the boy could not swim.

The annual Corpus Christi procession and three benedictions were held in St. Joseph's Catholic church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Two of these benedictions were scheduled to be held outside on the church grounds and one in the church but due to inclement weather all three were held in church, one at the Sacred Heart Altar, one at the Blessed Mother's Altar and one at the main Altar in the church. The procession consisted of altar boys, priests, girls of St. Euphemia's school, the Celebrant of the Benedictions, the Rev. Francis Stauble, assisted by the Rev. Elbert Gay and the Rev. John Sullivan. Priests in the sanctuary were the Rev. Gerald Murphy, the Rev. Joseph Sullivan, of Baltimore, brother of the Rev. John Sullivan, and the Rev. Francis Dodd. The altars were decorated with red peonies and red rambler roses.

SALARY BILLS ARE ADVANCED

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—The legislature advanced salary-raising bills today for most Commonwealth and county workers, except the governor and members of his cabinet. Part of an administration plan to boost public employee wages by approximately 10 per cent, both the House and Senate scheduled immediate action on measures to pass them prior to an adjournment sought by Saturday night.

The house listed for consideration a Senate-passed bill to hike by an average of 18 per cent the salaries of all Pennsylvania judges, including those on the appellate courts. The average common pleas bench post now pays about $10,000 a year.

Meanwhile, the house passed and sent to the senate last night a series of bills increasing the compensation of commissioners and other county officials, except those in Philadelphia, by 10 per cent.

The senate yesterday killed a proposal to increase the salary of the Governor from $18,000 to $20,000 and by 10 per cent those of members of his cabinet who now average $10,000 and $12,000 annually.

Keeper Is Mauled By 400-lb. Gorilla

Philadelphia, June 12 (AP)—Additional bars will be built into the outdoor cage of Bamboo, the zoo's 400-pound gorilla whose latest victim was so badly mauled his left arm was amputated.

Keeper Samuel Giunta, 64, remained in serious condition after the amputation. The keeper, widower father of nine, also suffered severe lacerations and a compound fracture of the right arm.

Giunta stepped too close to the gorilla cage and Bamboo grabbed him through the bars, ripping and tearing him for two minutes before splashing hot water drove the animal back.

Giunta was Bamboo's second victim in seven weeks.

Chapter 21

"Do you think I'm playing for fun?" asked Rush. "I asked for it and I got it, only I wasn't there on time to receive it personally. I even expected it. But, my dear," he looked seriously across the table at Gay. "I've got some very lovely things in store for them, too. And they'll get them personally. They're on their last legs. When the mob that runs this town begins to go in for actual violence, they're on the way out."

Gay lit a cigarette and puffed angrily. "You're so sure of yourself," she said. "You think you're so invulnerable, and all it will take is one bullet on a dark street and you're through. There's no more you. Where bullets are concerned you're like Achilles, only you're all heel."

Rush grinned. "I hope I get what you mean," he said. "And let me point out I don't think I'm invulnerable. I'm always careful. Very careful."

He stood up from the table and shrugged into his coat. He kissed her and left.

A cruising cab picked him up a block away and deposited him at the offices of the Forge City Chronicle. He found Bill Prime and Pedrick in Prime's office. Pedrick raised an eyebrow at him from a chair across the room.

"Among a lot of guys who have been lucky, you are the luckiest I've ever known. I hope you thanked that redhead for saving your life."

"I did," said Rush. "I did indeed."

"What is this deal?" asked Prime. "What deal?" asked Rush. "Start with the bomb."

"That's one that missed me in more ways than one. I don't know who put it there, but I'd hate to think I couldn't get it in three guesses."

Prime nodded. "Yeah. You're setting new records for personal unpopularity in certain quarters. But how about the gun battle?"

"Now, that's something else again," said Rush. "That is a grade A sample of my own brand of dynamite. I think I bought about 10,000 votes for Covington for the price of four boxes of blank cartridges and a half hour of my time."

Prime leaned across the desk and stared at him. "You staged that with blanks?" he asked.

Rush nodded. "Prime swore briefly under his breath."

"A phony," he said. Prime relaxed, his face loosening into a grin.

"Yes, I never thought I'd bite on a deal like that. But it was a good one and it ought to get you at least 10,000 votes." He chewed briefly on a fresh cigar, put a match to it and looked at Rush. "What next?" he asked.

"More dynamite," said Rush. "I don't know exactly what kind but I've got to keep things blowing up or the story'll get cold by Tuesday."

"Don't worry about that," said Prime.

"Fair enough," said Rush. "Now, I think I'll see if I have any clothes left and have lunch. See you later."

He left and headed for the hotel. A harried hotel manager showed Rush to his room. It was a shambles. However, Rush's luck held. The blast had centered under the bed and his clothes in the closet were untouched. There was a good deal of dust and dirt showered on his shirts and linen in the dresser but a laundry would fix them good as new. The only real damage from Rush's standpoint was done to a bottle of rye. It had shattered and run over the desk.

He went into the coffee shop and spread a noon edition of the Chronicle across the table while waiting for his order to come.

The waitress stood over him with a plate suspended waiting for him to move the paper. Simultaneously as he moved a shot rang out just outside the coffee shop—the girl dropped the plate and Rush jumped as though the shot had hit him.

He scrambled out of the booth and dodged around tables to the street door of the coffee shop. To his left, a matter of ten feet, a crowd of people were clustered around a huddled figure on the sidewalk. Rush shouldered his way in and looked down. There was something familiar about the lean tailored length huddled around a puddle of blood on the sidewalk. He almost got it in the sick hair

GROCERY STORE SALES OF BEER ARE DEBATED

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Dry forces and liquor dealers alike lined up today against legislation that would permit grocery stores in Pennsylvania to sell package beer.

The authority would be granted under an amendment to a pending liquor bill to license grocery stores and allow them to sell a maximum of 12 pints or six quarts of beer for consumption off the premises.

"The dry forces will do everything possible to defeat the legislation that would allow sale of beer at grocery stores," the Rev. John Yates, Harrisburg, of the Lord's Day Alliance told a reporter.

Blow to "Legal Liquor"
From the other side of the controversial issue, David B. Pittler, attorney for the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association of Pennsylvania, said the proposal was "a devastating blow to legal liquor" in the state.

"This amendment will result in 15,000 to 20,000 new licenses in Pennsylvania, which already has 20,444," Pittler said in a statement. "The amendment was advocated and sponsored by a combination of chain stores and brewers."

Early Objections
The grocery beer amendment was written into the House-passed codification of the Commonwealth's liquor laws by the Senate law and order committee over objection of Chairman A. H. Lettler (R-Clearfield).

"It was my feeling that we had enough licensed places to retail beer but the committee outvoted me," Lettler told a reporter, adding, however, that "Pennsylvania and Delaware are the only states where beer is sold that does not permit retail sales of beer by groceries."

At the same time, the Senate committee dropped another controversial provision that would have exempted clubs for 18 months from the state's quota law limiting licenses in any municipality to one for each 1,000 population.

Father Of Three To Get Life In Murder

Lancaster, Pa., June 12 (AP)—John H. Smith, 36, father of three children, was convicted of first degree murder last night in the fatal stabbing of Joseph Duschl, 68.

The jury, which deliberated five hours, recommended clemency, under state law the recommendation makes mandatory a life term in prison.

Duschl was killed last April, the state charged, during an argument which began when he refused to lend Smith $20.

Pittsburgh, June 12 (AP)—A 15-ton rock fall killed two men and seriously injured a third at the Kelley mine at nearby Lardintown yesterday. The dead were James Peroz and William McCullough of Saxonburg road. Joseph Codyk, 58, of Millertown, suffered a possible skull fracture.

Legislators Disagree
Rep. Herbert P. Sorg, the Republican leader, said the House could not agree to changes made by the Senate to administration bills banning strikes by government employees and jobless benefits for strikers and equal pay for women for equal work.

The House labor relations committee approved another administration bill, requiring compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in public utilities, making a vote on that measure possible on Friday.

The Senate-passed bill, which originally provided for a secret strike vote before and during walkouts, will be stripped of all provisions except restriction on jurisdictional disputes between unions and secondary boycotts by unions in strikes, Chairman Adam T. Bower (R-Northumberland), said. In addition a new one will be inserted increasing the salaries of labor board members ten per cent.

BILL LIMITING STRIKES GOES TO DUFF'S DESK

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Legislation prohibiting picketing of strike-bound plants by non-employees and requiring unions to file financial statements with the Department of Labor and Industry went to Governor James H. Duff today with approval of both House and Senate.

The bulk of the administration strike control legislation, however, was headed for a conference committee to iron out differences between the two branches while the House dropped, with one exception, a group of Senate-passed labor bills, lacking administration support.

Those developments occurred in quick succession in the House yesterday as Assembly leaders continued to drive for final adjournment of the 1947 session on Saturday.

CHINA FACING CENTURIES OLD BORDER ISSUES

By JAMES D. WHITE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The real news about China's border trouble with the outer Mongolians in the great western province of Sinkiang isn't so much that it has happened, but that we have heard about it.

It would be hard to find anywhere in the world so vast an area (twice as big as Texas) so remote, so redolent of a confusion of races and faiths, so habituated to conquest and misrule or no rule at all.

The Chinese empire had Sinkiang for hundreds of years and never got it under full control until the great general Tso Tsung-T'ang, nearly a century ago, subdued it in a campaign which took years because his troops had to plant crops as they went along.

Old Racial Ties
Even today it takes a Chinese official three days by air to reach the border region where the trouble with the outer Mongolians is reported to be taking place.

In Sinkiang he finds a relative handful of Chinese officials, merchants and settlers ruling as a small minority among one to four millions of polyglot tribesmen, (no one really knows how many) most of whom have racial connections in outer Mongolia or in Soviet Russia itself.

This means trouble, internally and along borders. Sinkiang has seen many revolts in recent years, and during one three years ago Chinese troops chased some Kazakh tribesmen across the line into outer Mongolia—and they used planes, too.

But it's all so far off that you just don't hear about Sinkiang unless things get worse than usual or unless somebody has some "other reason" to tell you.

No Ordinary Fight
As has been widely noted, Russia's "other reason" for letting her Mongol satellite get involved with Sinkiang would be part of her reaction to the Truman foreign policy. It's quite possible, as a Chinese spokesman says, that "this is no ordinary frontier incident."

Meanwhile military observers in Nanking are remembering the many incidents in the past, and pointing out that no matter how serious this one is the Chinese are in no position to do anything about it, really.

It is hard to escape the coincidence of the lifting of Chinese silence about Sinkiang with the growing and desperate need of the Chinese government for American help—to bolster an economy wrecked by war and re-wrecked by civil war.

This is needed so badly that at least one Chinese, Cheng Tien-Fang of the Nationalist party, tells me that China's currency must be stabilized with American help if China is to go on paying her soldiers who are fighting the Communists.

State FFA Boys Vie For Contest Prizes

State College, Pa., June 12 (AP)—Nearly a thousand farm boys from all sections of Pennsylvania were competing for prizes here today at the first Future Farmers of America activity week since 1941.

The youthful farmers, representing more than 275 high schools in the state, are being housed in the Pollock Circle dormitories on the campus of the Pennsylvania State college campus—the homes of the college's ex-GI students.

Winners of the contests now underway in public speaking, dairy cattle, livestock and poultry judging, farm mechanics and crop and insect diseases, will represent Pennsylvania in regional eliminations in preparation for the national FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo., in October.

COOLER IN WEST PA.
Pittsburgh, June 12 (AP)—Comfort returned to western Pennsylvania today as partly cloudy skies diluted the sun's heat, which had lured the mercury up to 93 downtown yesterday. Today's high was expected to be a pleasant 78. Increasing cloudiness tonight will be followed by showers tomorrow, the weather bureau predicted.

Senate Committee Accepts House-Passed Teacher Pay Measure; Near Final Vote

CONFERENCE TO COMPLETE FINAL ACCORD IS SEEN

Harrisburg, June 12 (AP)—Settlement of the school teacher pay issue without a "last-minute dispute" was seen today by Republican legislative leaders as a result of a Senate committee's approval of a House-passed mandated salary schedule of $1,950 to $3,400.

Proposed by Sen. Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill) and endorsed by Chairman Frederick L. Homsher (R-Lancaster), the plan also called for dropping controversial optional merit raises beyond the mandated ceilings and the $1,590 to $4,000 scale which included such increases.

The revised measure was immediately started toward a vote with prospects still strong for a final Senate-House conference to iron out minor differences and rough spots in the plan in the closing hours of the 1947 session.

Sudden Switch

Announcing the sudden switch—one of a number that have occurred on the rapidly developing education question in the last few weeks—Homsher said "We thought it would be better to do now what we would have had to do eventually rather than have a last-minute dispute that would ruffle everyone's tempers."

He said the new measure would be within the $48,000,000 limit set by Gov. James H. Duff because "there was no change made in subsidy provisions." Both House and Senate were agreed on a $700 minimum a teaching unit and a $2,200 maximum in next two years and increases in following fiscal periods.

The Senate committee at the same time substituted Senate provisions on state grants for vocational education for those proposed by the House, Homsher explaining that an estimated $3,000,000 difference in cost between the Senate and House proposals was wiped out by the action.

See "Apple Polishing"

The optional merit increases—which would have become effective only for outstanding teachers in the 1948-49 school year—were vigorously opposed by the Pennsylvania State Education association on the grounds it would only lead to "apple polishing."

Before the Senate committee's action yesterday, the upper branch was holding out for only three mandatory service increments for standard certified teachers and six for those with college degrees against the five and eight respectively sought by the House.

Both Houses, likewise, differed on the number of possible merit increases with the Senate seeking to establish two more for each classification, worth $150 each except in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Merit boosts, Homsher explained, "Were not my proposal in the first place," recalling they were first suggested at conferences of Republican members of the House and Senate education committees several weeks ago.

Tenure Change Shelved

Other education developments included:

Initial Senate action on a House-passed bill broadening the local taxing authority after amendment in committee to allow court appeals from proposed age, sales, income or amusement taxes and to eliminate first class townships from the municipalities granted the new powers.

Committee approval and initial House action on a Senate-approved administration measure to set up a state tax equalization commission to determine market values of real estate for the purpose of computing state grants for education instead of using tax assessments as at present.

Return to a Senate committee and almost certain legislative death of a proposal to change the probationary period for teachers in advance of rating for tenure from two to three years.

Sets These Scales

As amended by the Senate education committee the teacher pay bill would establish these scales outside of the state's two major cities:

Teachers with standard certificates, $1,950 to $2,700; with college degrees, $2,000 to $3,200; with masters' degrees, $2,200 to $3,400.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—standard certificates, $2,175 to $3,050; college degrees, $2,200 to $3,800; masters' degrees, $2,400 to $4,000.

Present scales are: Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, $1,400 to $3,600, with differing minimums and maximums for elementary, junior and senior high school instructors; second class districts, $1,400 to $2,700; and third and fourth class districts, $1,400 to $2,300.

Inmates of San Quentin, California's state prison, have reclaimed hundreds of tons of cable, copper wire and rubber salvaged from warships.

The Canadian swordfish catch has attained a yearly value of $327,000.

MEMORIAL AT NETTUNO—While U. S. soldiers stand at attention, memorial services for the men who died on the Anzio beachhead are held at Nettuno military cemetery.

MINERS TROOP BACK TO JOBS

Uniontown, Pa., (AP)—More miners were trooping back to the pits today as a rash of wildcat walkouts in protest over union-curling legislation began to peter out.

However, the short-lived work stoppage already had forced the United States Steel corporation to cut back iron making in the Pittsburgh district and at Youngstown, O., an estimated 2,200 tons daily.

Originally Big Steel reduced equivalent to one and a half blast furnaces at Homestead and Duquesne, Pa., works to save coke preparatory to the miners' 10-day vacation be-

Asks $12,763,000 For Pa. Flood Control

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Pennsylvania's Senator Myers has asked the House appropriations committee for beginning June 28. The latest cutback, equivalent to two blast furnaces, was attributed to a collapse of beehive oven coke production in the Uniontown area as a result of the protest strike.

The walkouts began Friday and spread rapidly until they reached a peak of nearly 17,000 idle in Pennsylvania and Indiana Tuesday.

Under pressure from district United Mine Worker leaders, approximately 5,000 miners returned to seven pits by noon yesterday and by nightfall another 3,500 had voted to go back.

a minimum of $12,763,000 for flood control work in the Keystone state during the next fiscal year.

The Pennsylvania Democrat urged—but did not make any specific requests for—"sufficient funds" for river and harbor work on the Delaware, Schuylkill and Ohio rivers.

Myers said that if President Truman's budget is as "bone bare" in all respects as it is on flood control, "then the $37,500,000 total budget which he has recommended x x x far from being fat or bloated x x x is instead woefully small."

Among his recommendations: Conemaugh river reservoir, $5,300,000; reservoir on east branch of

MARKETING with Marjorie

Whether you've been married ten days or ten years, the "marry" month of June is a good time to serve better meals to your "better half." And one way to do it (and make your husband think you're a financial wizard, to boot) is to shop regularly at your thrifty A&P.

MIGHTY NICE WITH ICE

I don't think there's anything more delicious under the sun than really good iced coffee! It's easy to make, too, when you use A&P COFFEE. Select one of these three blends... EIGHT O'CLOCK, RED CIRCLE or BOKAR... in the whole bean (that's how A&P COFFEE is always sold to insure its freshness), and have it Custom Ground exactly right for your coffeepot. Make your coffee double strength, pour it over ice, and serve.

PEACHY PRESERVE TREAT

ANN PAGE PRESERVES (available only at A&P) are so luscious I'm forever inventing more ways to enjoy them. Here's my latest: Fill cavities of 12 peach halves (fresh or canned) with 1/2 cup of chopped nuts mixed with 1/2 cup of ANN PAGE PRESERVES. Press halves together and chill. Heavenly topped with whipped cream and served over 6 cake slices.

FOR FLAVOR YOU'LL FAVOR

When a recipe says, "Season to taste," I have to guess at the quantity of spices to use. But I never guess at their quality. I make sure it's high by choosing ANN PAGE SPICES at the A&P. This complete line includes many choice varieties of whole and ground spices... all dependably pure and attractively priced. Try them!

ECONOMICAL AND EASY

Counting pennies? Count on this cake to save them... and to be light and fine-textured, too, thanks to SUNNYFIELD CAKE FLOUR (sold only by A&P). Cream 1/4 cup shortening and 1/2 cup sugar; add 1 egg and 1 tsp. vanilla; beat well. Sift together 1 1/2 cups sifted SUNNYFIELD CAKE FLOUR, 2 tps. baking powder and 1/2 tsp. salt; add alternately with 1/2 cup milk. Pour into greased and wax-paper-lined 8-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 30 to 35 minutes.

COP 'ADOPTS' FAMILY OF 7

Pittsburgh, June 12 (P)—Police Lieutenant Lawrence Maloney didn't quite know what to do today about the family of seven he "adopted" the other night when he found them sitting out on the street.

The John Sneller family had been evicted from their Northside home because the landlord wants to remodel the building. The gas, water and electricity had been shut off.

Maloney took $10 of his own money and gave it to them so that Sneller, his wife and their five children might stay at a hotel Tuesday night.

But last night the Snellers returned to the police department with a sad story: They still couldn't find a home and the Department of Public Assistance wouldn't help them because they haven't a permanent address.

"I don't know what to do," said Maloney. "I can't pay out $10 every night. I'm only a police lieutenant." Sneller is a truck driver but can't work because of a teamster's strike. Furthermore, the family is dogged by bad luck. Ruth, four, has her arm in a cast as the result of a fall, and Walter, eight, is recovering from a skull fracture suffered when he was hit by a truck.

Last night Maloney sat in the station house, his chin in his hands and his brow wrinkled. "I can't keep two families, you know," he mused.

Bonneauville

Bonneauville—The N. C. C. W. held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in St. Joseph's hall.

PRESIDENT—This is a recent portrait of Juan D. Peron, president of Argentina and long prominent in its political affairs.

The meeting opened with prayer by the president, Mrs. Evelyn Chrismer. Routine business was transacted and a short talk was given by the Rev. Leo Krichten, the pastor. Two-Headed Calf Can Eat With Both Anville, Pa., June 12 (P)—A Holstein calf on the nearby farm of Harvey Sweigert has the jump on the other animals when eating time rolls around—it has two mouths.

The calf, born Sunday, has almost two completed heads. Each head has a nose, mouth and two eyes but only one ear. The heads are joined together where the inside ears would normally be.

Sweigert said the animal is able to take nourishment in both mouths at the same time.

Infants usually prefer bright warm colors and show a strong liking for yellow, red and white.

Most adults prefer the colors red and blue. Green is the third choice and yellow last.

CALL 3RD COVER SPRAY IN COUNTY FRUIT SECTIONS

Apple and peach spray letters were sent out Tuesday by Adams County Farm Agent M. T. Hartman. Designed to control codling moth and chewing insects and to prevent scab, Brooks' fruit spot, black rot and sooty blotch, the third cover spray recommended for the apple orchards includes for each 100 gallons of spray: one pound of copper sulphate (bluestone), three pounds of fresh spray lime and three pounds of lead arsenate. Because the Bordeaux may russet the fruit on such varieties as Golden Delicious, Grimes and Jonathan the letter recommends that a wettable sulphur be used on those varieties. Bordeaux, the letter warns, is to be used only on dry foliage. In cool and wet weather wettable sulphur at manufacturer's direction plus three pounds of fresh spray lime may be used on all varieties to protect leaves and fruit from scab. The letter recommends that the spray be used immediately and that under no circumstances should more than ten days elapse between application of the second cover and the present spray.

Report On Conditions

The report on insect conditions produced in consultation with J. O. Pepper extension entomologist discloses that first generation codling moth larvae are entering apples not protected with spray. The majority of the overwintering worms have emerged as moths and eggs have been deposited in large numbers. Apple fruits are growing rapidly and must be sprayed at from 7- to 10-day intervals to keep proper coverage, the letter discloses.

On disease conditions, the report, prepared in consultation with L. O. Weaver, extension plant pathologist, discloses that scab has continued to spread in many orchards and spots have been found on fruit. Rains have spread the spores and have washed off the fungicide. Thorough coverage is required to prevent the spread of scab to the rapidly enlarging fruit.

The peach spray is designed to prevent brown rot and peach scab and is to be applied as soon as possible. For each 100 gallons of spray four pounds of flake zinc sulphate, eight pounds of hydrated lime and wettable sulphur at manufacturer's directions is recommended. The zinc sulphate and lime were added to the spray to prevent further arsenical injury to the trees, the letter states.

Mixing Directions

Mixing directions given in the spray letter call for adding the zinc sulphate while the tank is filling with water. When it is dissolved the hydrated lime is to be added and the sulphur is to be added last when the tank is almost full.

Disease conditions as reported by the letter show that brown rot, as blighted fruit and twig cankers, has been found in peach and sweet cherry trees.

The club decided to take Child Care for the summer project.

A special meeting of the Fairfield band auxiliary will be held Friday, June 13, at 8 o'clock in the high school building. Persons having instruments or uniforms belonging to the band are asked to return them immediately to Mrs. J. Warren Martin.

BILL PROVIDES THREE TYPES OF HUNTING PERMIT

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—Three types of hunting licenses would be available in Pennsylvania starting in 1948 under provisions of a House-passed bill passed by the Senate and sent to the House today for concurrence in amendments.

The bill proposes:

1. That sportsmen who hunt small game like rabbits and squirrels pay a license fee of $2.10.

2. That the same fee be paid for big game (deer and bear).

3. That if the hunters want to go both big and small game hunting they pay $3.10 for a combination license.

Other sections of the bill propose a $10 non-resident fee for small game and birds, a $15 non-resident fee for big game and a $25 charge for non-resident trappers' licenses, effective October 1, 1947.

Other changes in the hunting licenses provided in the bill would: End free licenses for persons in the armed forces after October 1, 1948.

Change the license period from September 1-August 31, to October 1-September 30.

Require hunters involved in fatal accidents to pay funeral, as well as hospital and medical expenses of victims before licenses are reinstated.

Allow suspension of mentally or physically incapable persons.

Action on the hunting and trapping license bill came less than 24 hours after the Senate approved a House-passed measure to boost resident fishing license from $1.50 to $2. That bill also is in the House for concurrence in amendments, one of which provides that 25 cents of each license fee be earmarked for development of better fishing.

AUTO INDUSTRY STRIKE AVERTED

Detroit, June 12 (P)—The auto industry was steered safely past a threatened crisis today by a new wages and hours pact for 22,500 Briggs Manufacturing Co. workers.

Briggs and the CIO United Auto Workers, with only hours to go before a strike deadline, agreed to terms late Tuesday night.

Their settlement on a two-year contract averted a strike set for 10 a.m. today which would have forced both Packard and Chrysler, each dependent on Briggs for auto bodies, to quit making passenger cars.

Together, Packard and Chrysler produce an estimated one-sixth of the industry's cars. Total idleness from a Briggs strike would have amounted to about 50,000.

But while the Briggs problem was solved, the industry still was not without labor difficulties.

The Ford Motor Co., charging a continuing slow-down in one department, yesterday closed its two Rouge plant assembly lines indefinitely. One hundred fifty body line workers in the pressed steel department were sent home a second straight day. The assembly lines, turning out Fords and Mercurys, lacked parts, the company said.

The Briggs-UAW settlement incorporated the industry's "equivalent" 15-cents-an-hour increase—a flat 11½ cents plus six paid holidays—and was made retroactive to April 28.

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—Establishment of an educational program in industrial and labor relations at Pennsylvania State college through its extension services is authorized under provisions of a bill passed 38-8 by the Senate last night and sent to the House.

New Oxford

New Oxford—Nadine Marie Bevenour, Marie Theresa Smith, Angela Marie Weaver, James Albert Noel and William Charles Noel were among the large class of students graduated Sunday evening from the Delone Catholic High school, McSherrystown. A number of students, parents and friends from this area attended the exercises at the auditorium.

Eighth grade graduation exercises were conducted Friday morning at the local parochial school following mass at the parish church which was attended by the students in a body. Diplomas for completion of grade school work were awarded to: Bertha A. Aumen, Mary Ann Bevenour, Barbara L. Groft, Lillian R. Kuhn, Louise V. Lingg, Anna L. Moore, Dolores M. Robinson, Dolores M. Staub, Gerald R. Breighner, Cloyd F. Kaiser, Reuben C. Luckenbach, Robert F. Miller, John M. Overbaugh, Donald J. Sanders, Eugene E. Smith and Leonard J. Staub. This graduation assembly closed the school for the summer vacation. Classes are taught by the Sisters of Mercy.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Orndorff have named their infant daughter, Cynthia Marie. C. Bernard Stuller, near Conecawago Chapel, husband of the former Miss Nadine A. Groft, near town, has returned from the Hanover hospital where he had been operated upon. Following the early mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Sunday morning, men of the Holy Name Society who had attended in a body, participated in a Communion breakfast at the parochial hall.

Mrs. Lulu Miller had as guests during the past week her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Miller, and infant daughter, Trudy Jean, Darby. Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bennett and infant son, William, Jr., have been spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bennett, Hanover, to which home the younger Mrs. Bennett, formerly Miss Evelyn M. News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

REV. MR. OWEN IS BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER FOR HS

"Carry a little honey, take along a little sweetness for yourselves," the advice given his sons by Jacob when they began a journey, according to the book of Genesis, was the theme of the baccalaureate sermon preached Sunday night to the graduating class of the Emmitsburg public high school. The speaker was the Rev. Charles S. Owen and the service was held in the Emmitsburg Presbyterian church.

Urging every graduate to "carry a little sweetness" with him through life, the Rev. Mr. Owen pointed out that "sweetness—kindness and gentleness—not only is useful to the kind and gentle person himself, but it brings happiness to others and a reward of happiness to the persons himself.

"Plato drew two conclusions, that there is no need to worry and that one should learn to laugh at himself. To follow that advice may mean the difference between success and failure in your own life. You need as many friends as you can have.

Cites Christ's Example

"It is not only nice to be nice to others for your own sake, but for theirs as well. There are many who like to make life miserable for others but three out of every four persons are hungry for appreciation. You, by carrying a little honey with you, can provide the appreciation for others that they need. A little honey will be comfort for many in difficulties.

"In fact to 'carry a little honey

Firemen To Replace Bell With Siren Soon

Emmitsburg's fire bell will soon be no more if plans of the fire company, made Tuesday night, are carried out.

At their regular meeting Tuesday the firemen decided to secure a siren to warn firemen and townspeople. The old bell isn't giving service any more, the members of the company pointed out, claiming that for the last few fires there has been no bell ringing out the alarm. First the rope tore and the firemen figured that it was old and needed replacement. They replaced it and the new rope cut through quickly after a few clangs of the bell and so the firemen decided something new should be added.

The company decided to send one of its trucks and a load of firemen to the Maryland State firemen's convention to be held at Frostburg on June 20 and named Herbert W. Roger, John Hollinger, Ralph Sperry, Charles F. Troxell and Guy Baker as delegates from the Emmitsburg company to the state convention.

with you' is Christian living. We have the example of Christ Himself, on the cross, praying for those who scorned him."

The baccalaureate program opened with the playing of the "Apotheosis for Faust." Gounod, as processional. Following the call to worship, doxology, invocation, and Lord's prayer, a hymn, "Day Is Dying in the West" was sung. The Rev. Philip Bower head the scripture and Mrs. Thomas Baumgardner sang a solo. A prayer, offering, offertory and a hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," preceded the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Owen. A prayer of consecration and the singing "Faith of Our Fathers" concluded the service.

SENIORS TO HOLD LAST ASSEMBLY

Emmitsburg's high school seniors will hold their last assembly program at 10:15 o'clock Friday morning at the high school.

The program will begin with a processional played by the orchestra followed by a Bible reading by Mary Long. The Lord's Prayer and salute to the flag will precede the reading of the class history by Mary Ellen Lively.

The orchestra will then play two numbers, a caprice, "Fairy Gardens" by Conway and an overture, "Grad-

VFW POST WILL DEDICATE NEW HOME JUNE 18

More than 500 are expected to attend the dedication of the home of Emmitsburg Memorial post, No. 6658, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be held June 18 at 8 p. m. Commander Charles R. Rowe said today.

The program was originally scheduled to be held Memorial Day, but inclement weather washed out the program set for that time. Since then the program has been enlarged and veterans and others throughout the area surrounding Emmitsburg have been invited to attend.

"We hope that as many people as possible will be present," Commander Rowe said today. "We particularly desire to invite all residents of Emmitsburg and of Adams county to attend."

The White Rose post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, of York, will send its male chorus to Emmitsburg for the dedication. And following the ceremony the White Rose group will present an hour's concert on the square at Emmitsburg.

The program will open with call to colors sounded by M. Sgt. William L. Baldwin, chief trumpeter, Pennsylvania Brigade, Sons of Union Veterans Reserve. After the colors are advanced the White rose post male chorus will sing and Chaplain James Adelsberger will read the prayer. Another selection by the chorus will precede the address by the Rev. Claude Corl, Sabillasville, Md., a chaplain in World War II.

After another selection by the chorus the home will be dedicated to the memory of 16 Emmitsburg men who died during World Wars I and II while in service. A selection by the chorus, retirement of the colors, benediction by the Rev. Mr. Corl and taps will conclude the program at the VFW home on the square at Emmitsburg.

On display at the time of the dedication will be pictures of most of the fallen heroes. The pictures are arranged on the wall of the corridor at the VFW home with the men's names and pictures listed where possible under insignia showing outfit with which they fought.

"Dedication Day," by McCaughey, Frances Linn will read the class will and the orchestra will present a romance, "Wild Flowers," by Stevens and a Chinese characteristic, "Chu Shan" by Stratford.

Robert Baumgardner is to read the class prophecy and then A. L. Leary, principal of the school, will present the awards won by the seniors.

The senior class will sing its class song. David Arnold will make the speech of invitation and Charles Wivell, Charles Brewer and Doris Wastler will deliver the speeches of acceptance. A recessional by the orchestra will conclude the program.

SINKIANG PUSH NEW CAUSE FOR ALARM IN WEST

By GLENN BARR
(AP Foreign News Analyst)

If the alarms being sounded in Nanking prove true, the worldwide struggle against the spread of Communism has extended to the great interior plateau of Asia, the roof of the world. That is an area where nearly all factors are in favor of the Red forces; there is little the anti-Communist elements can do to oppose any advance.

The Chinese official news agency's version is that troops of the Mongolian People's Republic (outer Mongolia), supported by four planes bearing Soviet insignia, crossed the border into Sinkiang, or Chinese Turkestan, and marched some 200 miles before meeting opposition. That would be easy enough in those distant, desolate wastes.

The reason for the invasion, if such it is, remains obscure. Doubtless if there is military action in progress we shall have shortly some account from the other side, some familiar story of border violation or other justification for punitive action. It is doubtful that the outside world will ever know much about what really is happening.

Part of World Pattern
However, it is impossible to separate this flareup on one of the world's most isolated frontiers from the worldwide pattern of Russian pressure and expansion. Outer Mongolia ostensibly is an independent republic, having won its freedom from China late in 1945 as the result of a plebiscite which followed the Soviet model of near-unanimity. The plebiscite itself was one of the concessions the Kremlin wrung from China in the treaty signed just as Japan was collapsing and which carried so many seeds of Russian-Chinese discord.

But Mongolian independence is strictly qualified. The first major act of the infant republic was to sign, on February 27, 1946, a treaty of friendship and mutual aid with the Soviet Union. Soon thereafter Moscow was sponsoring its application for membership in the United Nations, a bid which was rejected by the western powers.

Actually the Mongolian People's republic is one of the oldest examples of the puppet state, and one of the most effective. It moves at Moscow's bidding and if Russia does have designs on Sinkiang — and she has given evidence of such in the recent past — Mongolia would be the logical instrument for pushing them. The Mongolian army, a far-removed and feeble descendant of the hordes of Genghis Khan before the Russians came in, now is trained, supplied, guided by the Red Army.

Hub of Russia, China, India
A movement into Sinkiang would be a flowing back of Russian power rather than a new expansion. Russian influence for decades has been strong in that westernmost territory of China. The building of the Soviet's great Turkish trunk-line brought it well within the Soviet economic orbit and this hold has been reinforced by the new feeder branches of the Turkish built and building as part of the Soviet Union's current five-year plan.

From 1934 to 1942 Sinkiang, which has a population of perhaps 4,000,000 and an area of about 600,000 square miles, was under virtual

Hollywood News

Hollywood, (P)—Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles today took notice of growing eastern competition to the city's massive motion picture industry. Informed that more and more films are being made in New York and elsewhere by Hollywood companies, the mayor declared:

"We'll have to wake up and get busy on this."

Mayor Bowron told me that prior to the war some companies made films in other cities, but the move-

Soviet domination. A Russian controlled agency, the Sovintorg, monopolized all Sinkiang's export trade. Russian troops, wearing Chinese uniforms, were reported stationed at Hami. In 1942, when Russian fortunes in World War II were low, the Chinese succeeded in negotiating a Russian withdrawal and resumption of full Chinese control.

Sinkiang lies at the juncture of three tremendous land masses, Russia, China, and India. Were it more developed and less savage physically, Russian penetration there would doubtless cause immediate alarm throughout the western world as well as China. But some of the world's greatest mountain ranges and most forbidding wastelands isolate it from the great Asiatic centers of population. Even so, with India soon to be cut loose from British protection and with China in tragic upheaval, there will be added cause for concern in the western capitals should the Red banner be carried across Sinkiang to the mountain passes.

ment didn't develop. Lately, however, several pictures have been filmed completely in the east. Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York city has been particularly active in inducing film makers to use his city's real sets, instead of constructing them in Hollywood.

"Los Angeles is proud of the motion picture industry," Mayor Bowron declared, "and I'm sure the industry is proud of this city. The industry has helped greatly in the development of the city and the state, and I know we would hate to see any part of the industry go elsewhere."

He said he would investigate the matter further.

John Steinbeck promised Paulette Goddard and Burgess Meredith he would write a play for them. And he did. But then the writer didn't like it and tore it up.

Jon Hall is set for two pictures a year for Columbia and he has an interesting deal. He'll work for about one-fourth his regular salary and take a percentage of the profits. In that way he'll get his return over a period of years. Jon may make another film yearly, although he says:

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

"I'd be doing it for nothing because of taxes."

James Dunn's role in "Killer McCoy" is being built up to include some dance numbers with himself and Mickey Rooney. Remember the routines Jimmy did with Shirley Temple in the early thirties?

Victor McLaglen, who limits himself to two pictures a year, is in town for "Foxes of Harrow." He assures that he'd much rather be back on his Clovis, Calif., ranch, near Fresno. "Hollywood," he sighs, "isn't the same as it used to be—too many people."

Rod Cameron, now a member of the KOBUIS (Kissed Off By Universal International), wants to hold off and free-lance in the type of roles Fred MacMurray does. But his agent wants him to sign up to a studio contract so a steady salary (and the agent's 10 per cent) will keep coming in.

Katharine Hepburn leaves this week for her home in Hartford, Conn., and isn't expected back until fall when she'll do "B. F.'s Daughter."

Dean Jagger is back in Hollywood with his bride. He's doing "Driftwood" and intends to stay here because good plays are hard to find. Jimmy Durante hopes

BUDGET FREEZE

Harrisburg, June 12 (P)—House-passed legislation to freeze budgets of all school districts, except Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, once adopted went to a Senate committee on Wednesday. The measure, introduced his eastern pals don't hear that he attended a society "salon," and is now having his portrait done in oil. . . . Peter Shaw may make his American debut in "Make You A Fine Wife" with Phyllis Calvert and Melvyn Douglas. . . . "Green Dolphin Street" is minus an hour and now clocked at two hours and 47 minutes. Scenes deleted cost $250,000. Maybe they could release the excised portion in a B picture. Just a suggestion.
